

Geography

“Geography is a subject which holds the key to our future”

Michael Palin

Course content

Geography offers pupils a broad and interesting understanding of how the world works. It looks at the relationship between man and the environment and focuses on current global issues.

Skills developed

- Thinking and problem solving skills
- Cultural diversity and environmental knowledge
- Communication
- Literacy
- Mapping

Topics covered

- Transport
- Tropical Rainforests
- Population and migration
- The continents
- Coast
- Life in cities
- TNC's

For more information

Mr Wheaton

wheatoc01@carrmanor.org.uk

