

Social Studies

“Science without religion is lame, religion without science is blind.”

Albert Einstein

Course content

Social Studies in Year 9 is an introduction into the GCSE Religious Education course. The year prepares pupils with skills and knowledge to develop their confidence and understanding of key beliefs, teaching and sources of wisdom. Pupils will also explore philosophical and ethical issues ensuring an inclusive study of religion and examining traditional and modern philosophical questions.

Skills developed

- Evaluation
- Synthesis
- Self-understanding
- Coherent analysis
- Reflection

Topics covered

- Belief in God
- Christianity and Islam
- Philosophical questions on life after death
- Media and religion
- Social and moral issues in modern society

For more information

Miss Abbas

abbass04@carrmanor.org.uk

