

English

"No matter how busy you may think you are, you must find time for reading, or surrender yourself to self-chosen ignorance."

Atwood H Townsend

Course content

Year 9 will ensure pupils are preparing to tackle the new assessment objectives at Key Stage 4. It will involve a class reading book from a selection: Broken Soup, Of Mice and Men, To Kill a Mockingbird or Framed, and imaginative writing. This winter we will be looking at the Digital Media world using transactional writing resources. After Christmas, students will be exploring key scenes from a choice of two Shakespeare plays: Twelfth Night or Romeo

Skills developed

- Explain, compare and evaluate style
- Writing to different forms, purposes and audiences
- Punctuation
- Grammar
- Spelling
- Speaking and listening

Topics covered

- Digital Media
- Imaginative writing
- Transactional/non-fiction writing
- Shakespeare
- Nineteenth-century fiction
- Twentieth-century fiction

For more information

Miss Lake-Grange

lakegraa01@carrmanor.org.uk

