

History

“Those who cannot remember the past are condemned to repeat it.”

George Santayana

Course content

History studies our past, who we are and how events have shaped and changed our world today. It will help you to understand how different events and peoples have changed and developed Britain and the wider world.

Skills developed

- Strong communication
- Literacy
- The ability to interpret and think critically about the past
- Reasoning and questioning
- Forming an argument
- Analyse and evaluate historical information

Topics covered

- Romans
- Battle of Hastings
- Medieval Medicine
- Native Americans

For more information

Mrs Howard

smithia02@carrmanor.org.uk

